

During your stay in Bruges,
Meeting in Brugge would like to recommend the following restaurants for your lunch or dinner.

Cafedraal www.cafedraal.be	Romantic restaurant, situated at the foot of the cathedral in the heart of Bruges. The garden terrace is fairy-like. The seafood and fish are excellent, but people also come for the informal, cosy atmosphere. Closed on Sundays. Budget: Main dish: 25 – 35 Euro per person.
De Florentijnen www.deflorentijnen.be	Gastronomical cuisine. Restaurant located in a 16th century building, with a super-trendy interior. Closed on Sunday and Monday. Budget: Menu, starting from 39 Euro per person.
De Vlaamse Pot www.devlaamsepot.be	Romantic, cosy and typically Flemish. Everbody feels happy in this relaxed atmosphere. Dinners often turn into real parties. Warmly recommended. Closed on Monday. Budget: Main dish: 10 – 25 Euro per person.

Restaurants

18 – 22/04/2010

Duc de Bourgogne www.ducdebourgogne.be	Every delegate dreams of enjoying a gourmet dinner in this landmark restaurant in a historical setting. Picture perfect venue with a view. Exquisite cuisine. Attentive service. Budget: Lunchmenu: 29 Euro per person.
Brewery the Halve Maan www.halvemaan.be	Home Brewery De Halve Maan is where the Brugse Zot is brewed. Beer brewery with nostalgic museum. Budget: Main dish: 10 – 30 Euro per person.
Maximiliaan Van Oostenrijk www.maximiliaanvanoostenrijk.be	This restaurant ensures a traditional, quality cuisine and a good service in historical surroundings, which perfectly fits into the medieval character of Bruges. Add the view over the Minnewater and the Beguinage to complete the picture. Closed on Wednesday Budget: Main dish: 15 – 25 Euro per person.

Restaurants

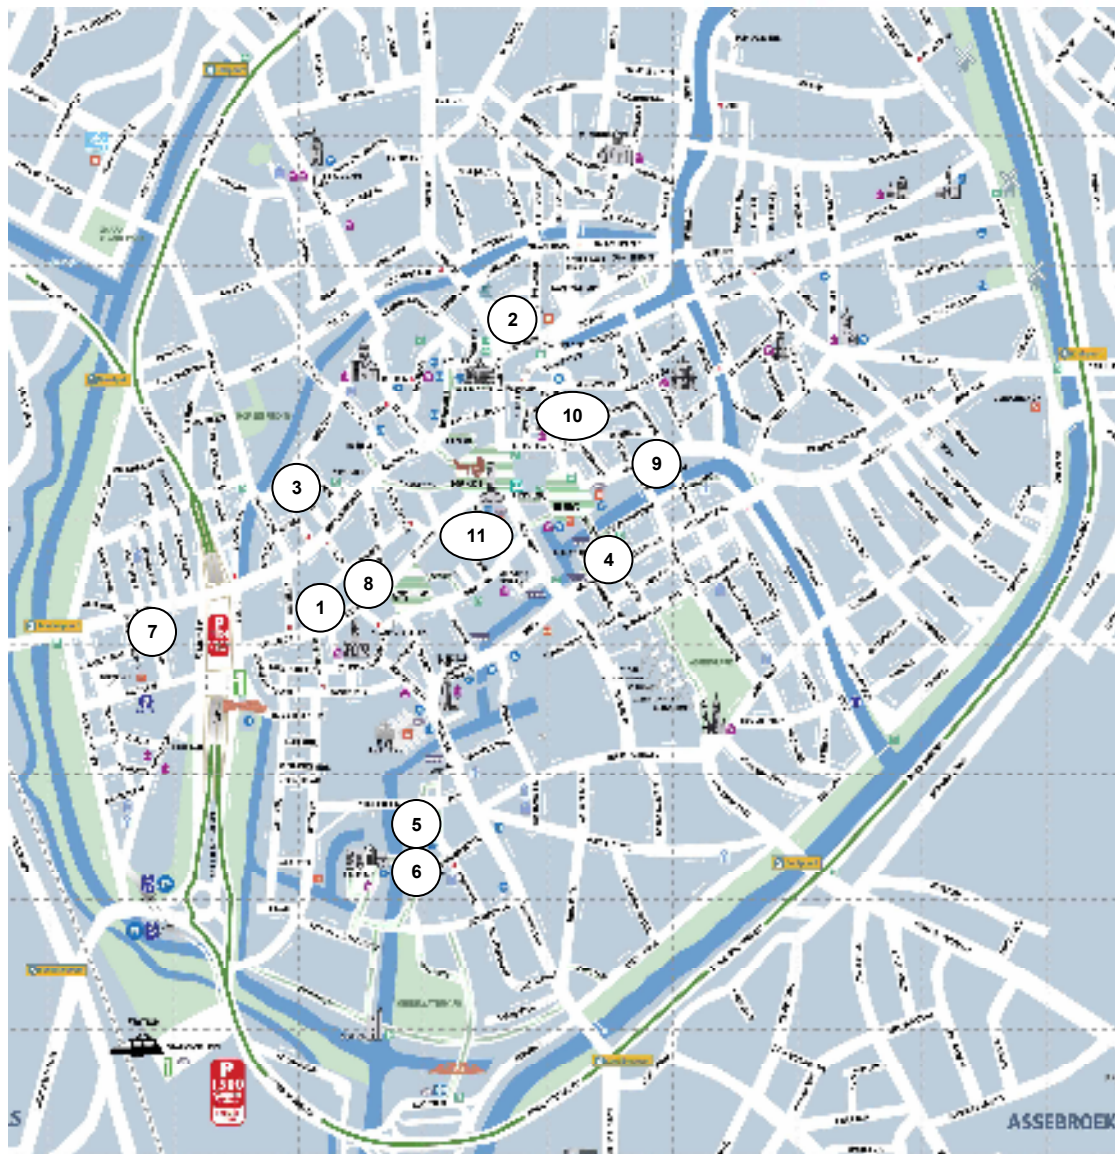

18 – 22/04/2010

Narai Thai www.naraithai.be	With its living coral reef, this restaurant combines the Thai culture with a western lounge style and offers a stylish alternative for the organization of international congresses. Budget: Main dish: 15 – 25 Euro per person.
Patrick Devos www.patrickdevos.be	Gastronomical restaurant in a 15th century façade and beautiful enclosed garden. Authentic Art Deco and Art Nouveau rooms make up the magnificent setting to a delightful dinner. Budget: Menu, price per person: 40 Euro.
Pergola Kaffee www.dieswaene.com	In the trendy Pergola Kaffee, you can enjoy your afternoon tea, an aperative before dinner or savour one of the dishes from the inspiring restaurant menu, while the boats float by in front of you. Closed on Tuesdaynight and Wednesday. Budget: Lunchmenu, price per person: 23,50 Euro.

Restaurants

18 – 22/04/2010

Restaurant De Bocarme www.debocarme.be	Very cosy, renovated 12th century cellar in the heart of the city, at 25 meters from the Market Square. Beautiful and warm location. Gastronomic cuisine with fresh products, prepared by the owners. Closed on Thursday. Budget: Main dish: 25 – 29 Euro per person.
Restaurant De Witte Raaf www.restaurantdewitteraaf.be	Just next to the Belfry on the Market Square, you will find a classy restaurant with beautifully renovated rooms. Closed on Sunday and Monday. Budget: Lunchmenu, price per person: 25 Euro.

1. Cafedraal
2. De Florentijnen
3. De Vlaamse Pot
4. Duc de Bourgogne
5. Brouwerij De Halve Maan
6. Maximiliaan Van Oostenrijk
7. Narai Thai
8. Patrick Devos
9. Pergola Kaffee
10. De Bocarme
11. De Witte Raaf

Restaurants

18 – 22/04/2010